About DermTech, Inc. (DMTK)

DermTech is a dermatology-focused molecular diagnostics company developing and marketing novel non-invasive genomic tests to aid in the diagnosis and management of skin cancer, age-related skin conditions, and inflammatory skin diseases. The Company's genomic tests utilize DMTK's novel non-invasive technology platform called the "Smart Sticker," an adhesive patch that allows a physician to collect skin cells from a patient. The technology provides an accurate alternative to biopsy, minimizing patient discomfort, risk of infection, and scarring.
