About eXp World Holdings

eXp World Holdings, based in Bellingham, WA, is the holding company of agent-owned, cloud-based real estate brokerage, eXp Realty. The Company operates in all U.S. states and over 20 international markets. In a traditional brokerage industry that relies on large office footprints, eXp elects to host its services from the cloud, which reduces fixed operating costs and helps pave the way for some of the industry's most attractive agent compensation packages.
