

Expert Call with Ken Simonson Coronavirus Impacts & Implications for US Construction

Monday, April 27 at 11:00 a.m. ET/10:00 a.m. CT

Stephens is hosting a conference call for institutional investors with Ken Simonson, Chief Economist at the Associated General Contractors of America (AGC) & creator of the "AGC Coronavirus Survey".

About Featured Speaker Ken Simonson

Ken Simonson has been chief economist for the Associated General Contractors of America, the leading trade association for the construction industry, since 2001. He provides insight into the economy and what it implies for construction and related industries through frequent media interviews, presentations and the Data Digest, his weekly one-page e-newsletter that goes to over 50,000 subscribers.

Ken has more than 40 years of experience analyzing, advocating and communicating about economic and tax issues. Among his outside activities, he advises the Census Bureau on overhauling its construction data. He is a Fellow and past president of the National Association for Business Economics, and he is co-director of the Tax Economists Forum, a professional meeting group he co-founded in 1982.

Ken has a BA in economics from the University of Chicago, and an MA in economics from Northwestern University.

Conference call date and time subject to change. To join the call or to obtain more information, please contact your Stephens sales representative.
