

Open Lending Bear And Bull Debates: Growth Vs. Expectations In 2021 & Beyond

MAY 12, 2021 | 11:00AM ET

We invite investors to attend a conference call with Vincent Caintic on Overweight-rated LPRO. Vincent will debate the bear and bull case on Open Lending, including macro trends that could lift/derail growth (e.g. are car shortages a good/bad thing?) and management actions that could help/hurt the story (e.g. where's OEM and Insurance Company #3?). Vincent will also update investors from the 1Q Sell Side Follow Up Call.

Conference call date and time subject to change. To join the call or to obtain more information, please contact your Stephens sales representative.

May 12, 2021 | 11:00AM ET

Topics of Discussion:

- What are the key bear and bull debates on LPRO shares after 1Q21 earnings?
- Valuation: What's the next leg for the stock and what's the catalyst?
- Review of key takeaways from Open Lending's 1Q Sell Side Follow Up Call from May 11.
- What are expectations for the rest of 2021 and into 2022? Are they too high? Will management deliver on its many promises?
- What are the key risks to the Open Lending business model? For example: used car supply, interest rates and insurance risks.
